Governor Bell has designated Friday, May 4, as Arbor day. Arbor day is a day of growing importance and should be observed.

Charles J. Bell formally has made public his intention to be a candidate for the republican nomination for congressman from the second district at the district convention this spring.

Following is a short editorial on silence:

Formal announcement has been made that John H. Merrifield of Newfane is a candidate for the republican nomination for lieutenant-governor.
With Prouty of Newport and Leland of Springfield also candidates it looks as if there would be "something doing" among the friends of these three gentlemen between now and next June.—Exchange.

"Brewster's Millions," the story we have just finished publishing, has met with such phenomenal success and has been read by such a large majority of our readers that we have decided to begin another story at once. The title of the story is "Cap'n Eri" and the sense of humor throughout this story in connection with the romance will be sure to keep you interested and pleased. Watch for the first chapters.

State Auditor Graham and Secretary of State Fleetwood will in all probability be given a renomination at the republican convention next June. Both have held the offices they now fill two terms and they have performed their duties in a very satisfactory manner. State Treasurer Bacon will also be renominated. He has served several terms in an acceptable manner.—Morrisville News and Citizen.

Wonder if the Montpelier Journal had reference to towns in our vicinity when it said: "There are hundreds of villages and towns in this state that are endowed with natural beauty and advantages, that need only a careful system of advertising to bring their attractions before the public.
Let their first duty be, however, to clean the village up and make things attractive to the eye, so that the first impression of a stranger will be a favorable one."

Great interest is being taken in the farming special, to come through this section next week. Elsewhere we publish the schedule of dates and hours of their stop. In Massachusetts where they have stopped large crowds have gathered and the enterprise has been called a success. Those wishing to see the exhibit should be on hand at the station most convenient for them at the time designated elsewhere in this paper. The stops are short and one must be on hand to get the benefit.

The announcement of State Treasurer J. Bacon that he will not seek a renomination in the State republican convention will come as a surprise to the public in general, although it has been known to some of his friends for some time that he was strongly considering this step. Mr. Bacon has made a faithful and efficient treasurer and the people of Vermont will be fortunate if they succeed in securing his equal as his successor. There are many excellent men available, however, and it is to be taken for granted that a good man will be nominated in the state republican convention.—

The most rational remedy for Coughs and Colds is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar.
It acts on the bowels as a mild cathartic—expels all cold from the system. Cuts all painful out of the throat, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. An ideal remedy for children—qually good for adults.

Arrested in Lowell.
Charles Robertson was lodged in Franklin county jail Tuesday charged with assault and battery on Fred Good-roe, at Swanton, March 29. Briefly, the story of Robertson's arrest and trial are as follows: Early Monday morning Sheriff H. L. Stevens of Hyde Park telephoned State's Attorney Warren R. Austin that a man answering the description of Robertson had been seen in Hyde Park, and had inquired for a man named Robertson, whom he said was his brother. He was directed to Lowell. Monday afternoon State's Attorney Austin issued a warrant for Robertson's arrest and took the same to Swanton and mailed it to Sheriff Stevens on the four o'clock train, which arrives in Hyde Park about seven o'clock.

Sheriff Stevens immediately started for Lowell, being out nearly all night.
He arrested Robertson at his mother's home in Lowell, and took him to Swanton. Robertson was given a preliminary examination before Justice of the Peace C. H. Reynolds of Swanton, charged with an assault and battery on Fred Goodroe, and the evidence was sufficient to warrant the binding over of Robertson to Franklin county court in the sum of $1,000 bail, which he was unable to furnish. When the case came to court swift justice was handed out to Robertson; Judge Tillotson sentenced him to serve not more than four years nor less than three years and six months, at hard labor in the House of Correction at Rutland.

The Better Farming Special.

The new Farming Train, consisting of three cars of agricultural displays, after touring Massachusetts and New Hampshire, will journey through the agricultural sections of Vermont along the line of the Boston & Maine railroad. The railroad officials have spared no pains or labor to make this exhibit complete. The train consists of three passenger cars and a combination car. The passenger cars have been provided with exhibits of crop production, horticulture, animal husbandry and dairying. The latest improved farming apparatus, animal foods, plant foods, samples of crops, maple sugar utensils, forestry display, etc., will be shown. Competent lecturers from various agricultural colleges will fully explain all exhibits and give any information desired.
Every farmer within a radius of 25 miles should endeavor to be at the station when this train arrives. The schedule as far as made up is as follows: Monday, April 16, arrive Wells River 9:00 a. m., leave 9:55 a. m.; arrive Ryegate 10:10 a. m., leave 10:50 a. m.; arrive McIndoes 11:10 a. m., leave 11:50 a. m.; arrive Passumpsic 12:15 p. m., leave 1:00 p. m.; arrive St. Johnsbury 1:15 p. m., leave 3:00 p. m.; arrive St. Johnsbury Centre 3:15 p. m. Tuesday, April 17, arrive Lyndon 9:15 a. m., leave 9:45 a. m.; arrive Lyndonville 9:55 a. m., leave 10:35 a. m.; arrive Sutton 11:10 a. m., leave 11:50 a. m.; arrive Barton 12:25 p. m.; leave 2:15 p. m.; arrive Barton Landing 2:35 p. m., leave 3:15 p. m.; arrive Coventry 3:30 p. m., leave 4:10 p. m.; arrive Newport 4:20 p. m.

Don't tie a cough or a cold up in your system by taking a remedy that binds the bowels.
Take Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It is different from all other cough syrups.
It is better. It opens the bowels—expels all cold from the system, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. An ideal remedy for young and old. Children like it. Sold by H. C. Pierce, Barton, F. J. Kinney, Barton Landing.

STATE NEWS.

Rutland Train Is Wrecked.

A deliberate attempt to wreck a train occurred Thursday evening at nine o'clock, when the train on the Ogdensburg & Lake Champlain division of the Rutland railroad from Ogdensburg, due to connect with the Montreal sleeper on the Rutland railroad at Alburg, was wrecked. The engine and three cars were thrown from the track.

Alleged Cruelty.

Because of alleged cruelty on the part of Mrs. Ida H. Read, state president of the W. C. T. U., a horse being driven by her was seized at Burlington by Humane Agent John Fuller and was killed by him. Mrs. Read and her husband, Dr. Read, had driven to that city from their home in Shelburne to attend a prize speaking contest at the W. C. T. U. temple.
The condition of one ankle was such that the horse could bear no weight on it, the foot turning over at every step and the full weight of the animal thus came on the ankle joint.

Big Timberland Deals.

Merrill Shurtleff of the New Hampshire firm of Drew, Jordan & Shurtleff has been in Ludlow examining titles for his clients, who have taken 5,200 acres of mountain lands in that vicinity. Connecticut parties have purchased 2,700 acres of woodland in Ludlow, Plymouth and Mount Holly, including the Parker and Piper lands, the Ravlin farm and the Saltash tracts, formerly owned by A. F.
Hubbard, also all the lands of Lawrence Barton except the Wesley Bar on homestead on the Brook road.
The average price per acre was $6.00.
Vermont Students at Washington.

In spite of the disagreeable rain which fell in Washington Friday, March 30, Senators Proctor and Dil-lingham and Representatives Foster and Haskins held continuous receptions to more than three hundred young Vermont students, who arrived the evening before on an excursion, and who were stopping at various hotels and private residences. The rain was not allowed to interfere with the program, which was mapped out before leaving home. Many places of interest were visited during the day, including congressional library, the magnificent structure spoken of by many as a monument to Senator Morrill, who did much to bring about its construction.

Town Must Pay $700 Damages.

Because the town of Waitsfield neglected to put up a guard rail beside a road with an embankment of seven or eight feet and because Hannah Graves went over the embankment while riding with her husband, a jury in Washington county court Thursday awarded damages of $700 to the woman. The accident happened near a bridge. Mrs. Graves claimed $5,000, asserting that she was injured in many ways, to one hip, on the body and on the head, the latter injury being such as to impair her memory at times. There is another case also to be tried, growing out of the same incident, in which the husband of the woman sues Waitsfield for a like amount. That will probably not be tried until the next term.

McFarland Girl Returns.

Florence McFarland, the fourteen-year-old daughter of Fred H. McFarland, who mysteriously disappeared a week ago, returned to Hyde Park village April 4. She appeared early in the morning at the home of Fred B. Noble and awoke that family.
They took pity on her and let her in.
Mr. McFarland early that morning left the village, driving to Eden, he did not know of his daughter's return at the time. He returned at five o'clock and visited Florence. He remained at the house about fifteen minutes. Florence would not hear of going home with her father, unless she was forced to. The father did not care to take this step and the child is still with Mr. Noble. A daughter, Frances Noble, is a schoolmate of Florence. Florence looks careworn.
She tells many stories about her disappearance, none of them, however, are believed. One is to the effect that she left home of her own accord and that she has been wandering around sleeping in barns and other places.
Mrs. Lamo a Whittier, who is charged with abducting her daughter, has seen the child, but will make no statement. Mrs. Whittier is held in $1,000 bail to appear before the grand jury in June.

Methodist Conference.

Smithers, president. In town hall Bishop Hamilton will give a lecture full of interest, on "Mexico, Marauders, Miracles, Men." Sunday: The services all day Sunday will be in the town hall. Love feast, led by Rev. A. L.
Cooper, D. D. Sermon by Bishop Hamilton. Sermon by Charles Parkhurst. Ordination of deacons and elders. Anniversary of the church Extension Society, speaker, Rev. T.
C. Cliff, D. D. Monday: Early session.
Probably the last session, concluding with the reading of the appointments by Bishop Hamilton.

THE LADIES favor painting their churches, and therefore we urge every Minister to remember we give a liberal quantity of the Longman & Martineau Paint toward the painting.
Wears and covers like gold.
Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for Linseed Oil (worth 50 cents) which you do when you buy other paints in a can with a paint label on it.
8 & 6 make 14, therefore when you want fourteen gallons of paint, buy only eight of L. & M. and mix six gallons pure Linseed Oil with it, and thus get paint at less than $1.50 per gallon.
Many houses are well painted with four gallons of L. & M. and three gallons of Linseed Oil mixed therewith.
These Celebrated Paints are sold by H. C.
Pierce.

GENERAL NEWS.

Dowie Liable to Arrest.

John Alexander Dowie, late ruler of Zion City, will be arrested upon his arrival there next Tuesday, if he makes one move toward reasserting his control. It is said two charges will be made, misappropriation of funds and slandering persons through the United States mails. Some of the council fear that with Dowie's return his old-time blustering and reviling may stir some of the subjects to renewed loyalty.

Famine Is Serious.

The latest private advices received from Japan have shown famine conditions in Sendai and the northern provinces to be so serious that the New York State Red Cross has determined to raise not only money but food in this country for the relief of the starving Japanese. This decision was reached at the meeting of the Japanese famine committee recently.
The committee decided to accept the offer of E. H. Harriman, president of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads, to transport 2000 tons of food from any of the freight stations on his system to the Pacific coast, and thence by the Pacific Mail steamships to the Red Cross of Japan.

Great Eruption of Vesuvius.

The eruption of Mt. Vesuvius is assuming alarming proportions. Five streams of burning lava are descending the mountain, destroying everything below. The inhabitants of the small villages near the crater are escaping, while processions of villagers carrying images of saints and madonna and praying for a cessation of the eruption are passing through the neighboring towns. The smoke and ashes are carried so far that all Naples is sprinkled with cinders.
The Neapolitans are not alarmed; in fact they are rather glad, saying that the new eruption of Vesuvius is in preparation for the arrival of King Edward, who left Marseilles April 3 on the royal yacht Victoria and Albert, accompanied by Queen Alexandra.

Swift's Funeral.

The funeral of E. C. Swift, the wealthy beef packer, who died at the Quincy House, Boston, April 5, took place Sunday at 11 a. m., at St.
Peter's Episcopal church at Beverly Farms. Rev. Eugene J. V. Huigain, rector of the church, was the officiating clergyman. The body was placed in a receiving tomb until after the return of Mrs. Swift from Europe.
Mr. Swift engaged rooms at the Quincy House on March 21, as he wished to be with his old friend and business associate, N. E. Hollis, while the latter underwent a surgical operation. Mr. Swift came to the Quincy House from his Beverly Farms estate and was taken ill with pneumonia on March 28. On the evening of March 28 his condition became so serious that six physicians were summoned for consultation. His daughter, Mrs.
Clarence Moore of Chicago, came on March 29 with her husband and E. F.
Swift came on the next day.

Severed Spine Is Cured.

The question whether the spinal cord, once severed, can be restored seems to have been solved by a young physician of Philadelphia. Five years ago Miss Clara Nichols was shot in the back. A diagnosis at the time resulted in the announcement that the spinal cord had been severed by the bullet. Dr. Francis Stewart, then just out of college, decided to test his theory that the severing of the spinal cord is not necessarily fatal. He sutured the broken cord and with three stitches united the severed parts. For three or four months the patient lay on her back in the hospital, and her death was daily awaited.
Her body below where the shot had entered had been completely paralyzed.
She did not even experience any sensation when taking food or water.
For two years she was kept in the hospital, where daily massage was given her. At first she could merely tell when she was touched. But this year, for the first time, she was able to distinguish, when blindfolded, the locality of the sensation. Within the last month she has walked with the aid of crutches about the little parlor of her home. Dr. Stewart assures her that she will eventually be able to discard the crutches and walk as she did years ago.

African Hospitality.

Hospitality may be considered as one of the characteristics of not only the Veis, but of the whole African race. It is considered the duty of every citizen to entertain strangers without the smallest compensation. Places of rest stand always open, and when these are found occupied by strangers a man goes and tells his wife, who will send her servants with water for the strangers to wash their feet, for, as they wear no shoes, they naturally need such an accommodation. Afterward rooms and cloth wrappers are given them, food is brought from all quarters or they are invited to eat with the people. They continue to be so provided for even if they stay months.
Their garments are also washed and returned to them. On leaving they generally make a small gift to the wife of the host, though not more than two or three cola nuts or two or three English pennies.—Century.
